Our City Comment & discussion by THOMAS D. WATSON

Conference of Improvement
and C. of C.
Forces Means
Much to City

THE conference of representatives of the civic and business associations with the directors of the chamber of commerce last Wednesday was surely a step in the right direction. This meeting ought to convince the citizens of Glendale of the fact that the chamber of commerce is willing and desirous of co-operating with all towards the upbuilding of our city.

That the different organizations presented at the meeting were more than willing to lend assistance was evident from the expressions of the several speakers. A PROPERLY functioning chamber of commerce is absolutely essential in the upbuilding of a city, and the faster the growth, the greater the need. One of the greatest stumbling blocks in the path of progress of our chamber is the fact that practically all of the business clubs of the city are endeavoring to handle the civic questions, which are the most important functions of a chamber of commerce.

We think this, in a measure, is the cause of so many resignations from the chamber and we are of the opinion that if all of the clubs would quit handling civic problems, other than through the chamber of commerce, conditions would change. OUR suggestion, made some time ago, we think would solve the problem. The suggestion was that each organization in Glendale take out a club membership at a cost to be named, this membership to entitle the club to representation on the board of directors of the chamber of commerce. There should be no objection to enlarging the size of the directorate, for the larger the body, the more democratic it would become, which is to be desired. If this were followed by the clubs handling all civic matters through their representatives on the board, the people at large would lend their confidence and support to the recommendations of this body.

WE believe a majority of the membership of the different clubs have come to the conclusion that a mistake is being made in the endorsing of problems presented before the different bodies. Little opposition is given any proposition presented. This custom has become so prevalent that the citizens at large do not give much weight to these endorsements.

By each club having a representative on the board of the chamber of commerce its desires regarding any matter could be transmitted through him.

As regards the present dues of the chamber of commerce, we do not think that $25 is too high, but we do think that if these dues were divided so that $12.50 of the amount went into an advertising fund and the balance kept for running expenses, the average citizen would think he was getting a better run for his money. Open meetings for free discussion are desirable. The fact that a citizen does not happen to be on the board of directors is no reason to suppose he would not have some good idea for civic betterment. Of course, he would not have a vote, but he would appreciate the opportunity of having been given consideration. Co-operation is what is needed, and this would give it more than any other step.

IN other words, invite the citizens of Glendale at large to attend the meetings and work for the interests of Glendale. If any of those attending the meetings are not members it should not bar them, but a few meetings would convince them, without any argument, of the advisability of joining, and membership through a recognition of responsibility is much desired. We are, without qualification, right back of a Greater Chamber of Commerce, to help in the upbuilding of a Greater Glendale. Are you?

SNEAK THIEVES WORKING

Several articles of value were taken from automobiles standing in front of the home of Robert Cleghorn, 314 Mira Loma street, shortly before 12 o'clock last night, according to a report turned into the Glendale police department by Mr. Cleghorn. The theft occurred during a party held in the Cleghorn home. The matter has been referred to Officers Royle and Simmons.

FOURTH OF NOON-DAY SERVICES SHOWS IS FELT FOR THE WORK

Dr. Merle N. Smith of Pasadena Delivers Worth-While Sermon to Interested Listeners at the Glendale Theatre

DR. H. I. RASMUS INTRODUCES SPEAKER

"The Flag of the Gospel of Christ Should Be Wrapped Around the Nations of the Earth and Tied to the Feet of God," Is Declared

"The flag of the Gospel of Christ should be wrapped around the nations of the earth and around the world and tied to the feet of God," was the climactic expression of the preacher Thursday at the noon-day services. Dr. Merle N. Smith of Pasadena was the speaker, and it was more than a worth-while sermon he gave the large crowd of interested listeners who had gathered for the fourth service of the Passion Week.

Following the usual music and special song, "The Publican and the Sinner," by Mr. Glenn Dolbert, and the prayer by Rev. J. C. Livingston, Dr. H. I. Rasmus introduced the speaker and also expressed his delight at the fine response of Glendale to the opportunity of these noon-day services.

LUTHERANS SELL SITE OF CHURCH

Dr. Theo P. Noehle, Dentist, Is Purchaser It Is Announced

A real estate transaction which has been hanging fire for months and which contains an unusual number of elements of interest is the recently consummated sale of the Lutheran church property at the northwest corner of Harvard and Maryland to Dr. Theo P. Noehle, a Glendalian, whose dental offices are located in the Monarch building.

While Dr. Noehle was the purchaser, Earl Pendroy of the Pendroy dry goods store admits that he had a slight interest in the transaction. He states, however, that the improvement of the property will be determined by the doctor.

This sale, which was made at a reasonable figure, considering the great value of the location, will now enable the church, of which Dr. H. C. Funk is pastor, to carry out its cherished plans for the building of a new church on the two lots on Kentwood between Harvard and Colorado, which it acquired some time ago.

While no definite plans have been drawn, a general agreement has been reached to build an edifice which will be of Spanish mission type with stucco exterior, which will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000.

If present intentions are carried out it will be built around a central rectangular court facing Kentwood, which will be made beautiful with grass, shrubbery and flowers. On one side of the court will be the auditorium, which will seat about 500. Across the rear will be the Sunday school rooms, and on the left hand side facing the street will be the parish house. An arcade entrance will lead to the auditorium and also to the central court, the auditorium being reached by the ascent of a short flight of steps, and the first or basement floor by an equally short flight of descending steps. On the first floor will be a banquet hall and kitchen, well equipped for the social uses of the church.

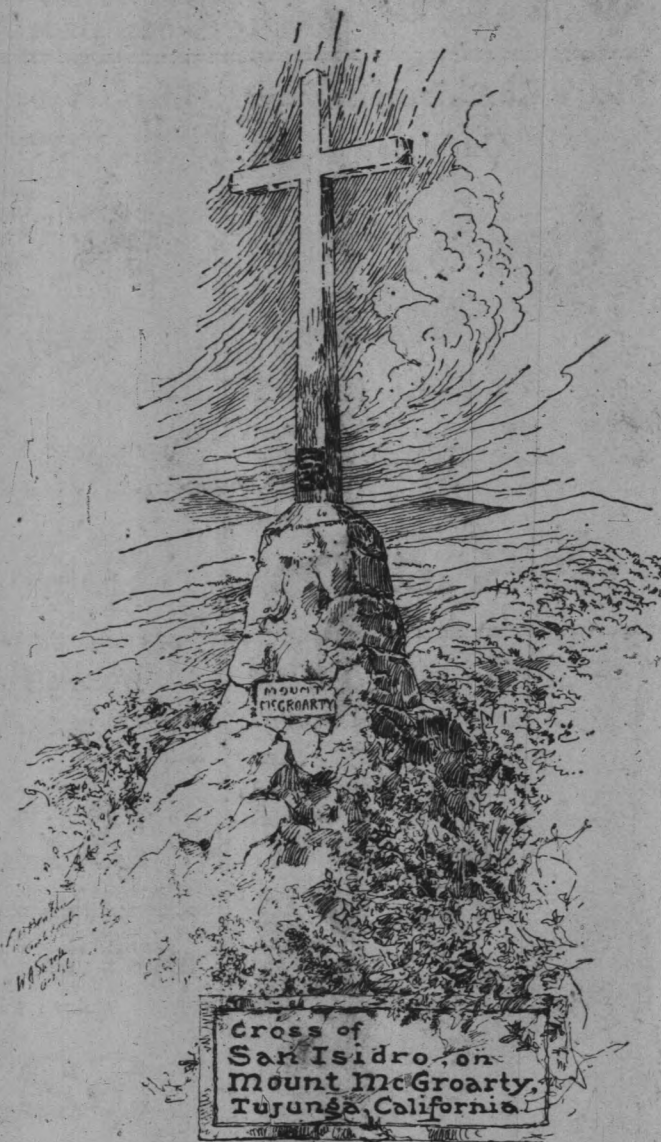

These matters have been in charge of a special committee composed of Paul A. Hoffman, H. J. Coleman, J. F. Bowman and O. W. Sherrick, who have been working under the direction of the church council.

Easter will be celebrated with especial happiness by this church, which must give possession of the property sold the first of next August. An architect who will work out details of the general plan agreed upon will be engaged in the near future.

TUJUNGA TO CELEBRATE WITH SUNRISE SERVICES ON MOUNT M'GROARTY

Fanfare of Trumpets to Welcome the New Day in Christian Annals of the Neighbors of the Green Verdugo Hills

Easter Sunday will be observed most memorably in the green Verdugo hills this year, with sunrise services to be held on Mount McGroarty, ending with the dedication of the mount to the poet and philosopher, whose home is on its northern slope.

A mammoth cross has been constructed at the highest point on the hill, and when the first rays of sunlight glance over the tops of the hills to the east and bathe it in the golden light of dawn, services will open with a fanfare of trumpets welcoming the new day.

Services will be short but impressive, and will be entirely undenominational. All of the pastors in the Verdugo hills district will take part, and there will be music by choirs and by the congregation.

Ample preparation has been made for caring for the crowd, which is expected to contain most of the members in good standing of the "Congregation of the Faithful" and guides will be stationed along the roads leading to the mount. The route from Glendale to Tujunga is delightful to drive over at any time, and is doubly so in the early morning at this season when the hills are beautiful in their spring verdure. The road leads up the Verdugo road and west on the state highway to Tujunga.

The double ceremony of Easter services held at the foot of the beautiful cross, high up on the soul inspiring hills, and the dedication of the mount on which it stands to John Steven McGroarty, poet, philosopher and author of the Mission Play, who is known and loved by thousands should prove one of the most beautiful and impressive of the many services to be held on Easter morning.

AUTO COLLISIONS

Automobiles driven by A. R. Thompson, 114 East Broadway and a person whose name could not be learned, collided at the corner of Colorado and Brand at 7 o'clock yesterday night. No one was injured. Leo Dudley Reed, 518 East Broadway and Charles Bateman of Tft. Calif., were driving machines that came together at the corner of Brand and Lexington at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Little damage was done.

BURGULARS VISIT HOME

The home of W. J. Farbar, 2194 East Palmer avenue, was burglarized some time Thursday afternoon, according to a report turned into the local police department at 6:30 o'clock. Officers Royle and Simmons have been detailed to this case.

THIRTEEN VOTES FOR HI TRUSTEE CAST BY NOON

No Opposition Appears to Election of Albert D. Pearce

Up to noon today only thirteen votes had been cast in Glendale for trustee of the high school district. The apathy of voters found an easy explanation in the fact that Albert D. Pearce is the only candidate and is one so generally approved that there was no question about his election as soon as his candidacy was announced. He succeeds Daniel Campbell, who refused to allow his name to again be presented, declaring he had given years enough to the ratification of the work of a high school trustee, interesting though the task may be.

Mr. Pearce is a well known attorney of Los Angeles and a past exalted ruler of the Glendale Elks' lodge, where he enjoys great popularity. He has been a resident of Glendale for a number of years and is well acquainted with its problems, educational and otherwise.

HIGH CORNER STONE TO BE LAID APRIL ELEVENTH

The laying of the cornerstone of the new plant for Glendale high school at the corner of Verdugo road and Broadway has been set for Wednesday, April 11.

While details of the program which will frame as it were the impressive ceremony have not been worked out, it is known that leading educators of Southern California will participate, also delegates from the principal organizations of Glendale and representatives of all the classes which have been graduated from the school. It will mark one of the greatest days in the history of Glendale and the school, and will be a monument to the growth of Glendale numerically and intellectually and in a material way.

INSTALLATION OF ELKS EXECUTIVES SET FOR MONDAY

On Monday night, April 2, the installation of officers of No. 1289 will take place. Past Exalted Ruler J. Andrew Ewing of Pasadena and six other past exalted rulers of the Elks' lodge of that city, including Harry Ticknor, who is at present the grand esteemed loyal knight of the grand lodge, will install the officers. It is planned to entertain these guests with a 6 o'clock dinner at the Harriet Mae tea room preceding the lodge meeting.

SOME LAKE STREET RESIDENTS WANT TO ENTER CITY

Another effort will be made soon by some of the residents of the lake street district, which lies to the northwest of Glendale, to have that section annexed to the city of Glendale.

A notice to the effect that a petition, asking that that section be made a part of Glendale, will be circulated in that territory within the next few days, was filed with the Glendale city council Thursday night, and a resolution was adopted acknowledging the communication.

This notice reads as follows: "We, the undersigned, duly qualified electors residing within that certain district contiguous to Glendale, herein described, hereby notify you that it is our intention to circulate and file with the city council of Glendale a petition asking that the territory included in the district below be annexed to the city of Glendale."

All of that part of the Rancho Providencia and Scott tract, lying north of the city of Los Angeles, south of the city of Glendale and southeast of the city of Burbank. The names signed to this petition are J. J. Schnoor, Vine avenue; Mrs. Emma M. Schnoor, same address; Gladys C. Lyman, same address; Edgar C. Lyman, Flower street; John E. Brown, Vine and Crescent; Mary Jesse Brown, same address; Charles H. Winters, same address.

CITY COUNCIL AWARDS C. D. GULICK PERMIT FOR LOCAL BUS LINE

He Must Establish, Within Ninety Days, a Complete System Ample Provided With Comfortable Busses Over Certain Designated Streets

THIS FORBIDS TRANSFER OF THE RIGHT

Councilman Davis Makes Motion Which Grants the Authorization for Operation in the City Under the Conditions Incorporated

The Glendale city council at its meeting Thursday night granted a permit to C. D. Gulick to operate motor busses over certain designated streets of the city of Glendale. The permit specifically states that the system to be established by Mr. Gulick must be in operation inside of 90 days.

Further, the permit gives a list of the streets over which the busses must run, these being among the most prominent thoroughfares of the city, covering practically all parts of Glendale. It forbids Mr. Gulick disposing of his permit to any person, firm or corporation, without first securing the consent of a majority of the city council.

The permit was granted last night on motion of Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Lapham.

Councilman Davis' motion was as follows: "That the application to operate motor busses over, along, upon and through certain streets in the city of Glendale made by C. D. Gulick be granted as prayed for, upon the conditions therein contained and hereinafter modified: "That it be made a part thereof that the city council be given the power to revoke the permit if Mr. Gulick fails to have his bus system in operation within 90 days. "Also that it be declared a part thereof that the permit shall be declared null and void if Mr. Gulick seeks to sell or transfer or give away the permit without applying to and receiving permission from a majority of the city council in regular session."

The vote on this motion was as follows: Ayes, Robinson, Davis and Lapham; absents, Kimlin; not voting, Councilman Stephenson, the latter giving as a reason for not voting that he is a member of the law firm which is representing Mr. Gulick.

In view of the fact that he was unable to be present at last night's meeting, Councilman Kimlin sent the following communication, bearing on the bus permit, to the council: "There is pending before us an amended application from C. D. Gulick for a permit to operate a bus line over certain streets of the city of Glendale. The transportation question in its several phases has been given our consideration for a long time. It seems to me that action is now necessary. I am unable to attend tonight's meeting, therefore I am writing to say that:

"I am in favor of immediately granting to Mr. Gulick a permit to use the streets for a motor bus line, as he outlines in his amended application, provided it be made a part thereof that the city of Glendale be given the power to revoke the permit if Mr. Gulick fails to have his bus system in operation within 90 days. "Also, that it be a part of the permit that the permit be null and void if Mr. Gulick seeks to sell or transfer or give away the permit without applying to and receiving permission from at least a

AUTO CAMP GROUNDS TO BE REGULATED BY ORDINANCE

The city council assured several interested residents of Glendale Thursday night that movement is on foot to put a strict regulation on the auto camping grounds that are located on San Fernando road. City Health Officer Dr. Kaemmerling, Mayor Robinson said, is now drafting an ordinance covering this question. This ordinance, according to the action of the council next Thursday night.

The matter was brought to the attention of the council by Charles J. Griffin of 1035 South San Fernando road, who appeared before the council as a representative of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association. He said the conditions in these camps are a disgrace to the city and that something should be done without delay. J. I. Wernette, speaking, he said, for the residents on the west end of Riverdale drive, stated that the camp at the junction of that street and San Fernando road is maintained in a frightful condition. If it cannot be cleaned up and operated in a clean and sanitary condition, he said, it should be removed altogether.

BELLEHURST TRACT SUBDIVIDERS GIVE UP WATER RIGHTS

Walter Leimert Company Deeds Glendale All Its Supply Titles

In return for the providing of municipal water by the city to the Bellehurst tract, the Walter Leimert company, the new owner and subdividers of the property, through its trustees, the Security Trust and Savings bank, has agreed to turn over to the city all of the right, title and interest to all of the water and water stock which it derives from Belle C. Thom, and which, otherwise, would go with the land generally known as the Bellehurst tract.

This water is of extreme value to the city as it helps to assure in the years to come an adequate water supply for the residents of Glendale. The letter from the Security Trust and Savings bank, signed by J. C. MacFarland of that company, received by the city council and filed, bearing on this subject, reads as follows: "In order to assure to the property commonly known as Bellehurst Park an immediate supply of water for domestic purposes and with a view toward co-operating with the city of Glendale in solving its problem of water supply, the undersigned, as trustees, under

OIL SWINDLERS OF TEXAS TO BE PROSECUTED

Acting Attorney General of Southern State Goes to Fraud Mill

WASHINGTON, March 30.—As a part of the department of justice against stock swindlers, begun last October, Acting Attorney General Seymour had sent Assistant Attorney General Crim of Fort Worth, to prepare for trial a large number of cases charging mail frauds in the selling of oil stocks. Mr. Crim has reported to the department that "the amount taken from the public at this point (Fort Worth) is not less than $100,000 a day."

About 78 cases are pending in the northern Texas district and Mr. Seymour said they would be pressed.

The department said that hundreds of swindlers had "filched a total of nearly $150,000,000 from the public through fraudulent use of the mails," with about 500 cases pending throughout the country, and 900 persons arrested or indicted.

MAKES NEW RECORD FOR FLYING SPEED

[By Associated Press] DAYTON, Ohio, March 30.—Lieutenant Lester J. Maitland, U. S. A. aviator, winner of second place in the Pulitzer cup races in Detroit last fall today was declared holder of the world's air plane speed record, accomplished yesterday when he piloted a Curtiss racing plane over a one-kilometer course four times at an average speed of approximately 243 miles an hour.

Maitland's maximum speed for one trip across the course was 381.4 miles an hour, the fastest any human being has ever traveled, according to officials of the United States army service connected with McCook and Wilbur Wright fields here. He was aided by the wind.

A new propeller, designed and built at McCook field, is said to be responsible in part for the record.

SOVIETS SPARE LIFE OF ARCHBISHOP ZEPLIAK

[By Associated Press] MOSCOW, Mar. 30.—The death sentence recently imposed on Archbishop Zepliak, head of the Roman Catholic church in Russia, was commuted today to ten years imprisonment under strict isolation. The appeal of Vicar General Butchkavitch for clemency was denied.

Archbishop Zepliak and Monsignor Butchkavitch, together with 15 Catholic priests were found guilty by the Moscow court on Monday last of opposing the soviet government. The sentence of death was imposed on the archbishop and the vicar general, but a stay of execution was ordered by the central executive committee. The other prisoners were sentenced to prison terms.

Announcement of the death sentence brought an immediate reaction in various parts of the world. The American state department undertook to inform the soviet government through Ambassador Houghton at Berlin that the United States earnestly hoped that the executions might not take place.

Pope Pius requested that the prelates be liberated on the grounds that they were his subjects while Premier Sikorski of Poland informed the soviet minister to Poland that the Polish government condemned the court's action.

The British government also let it be known that it was doing its best to prevent the executions.

AUTOMOBILE BUCKS ENGINE—FIVE KILLED

[By Associated Press] COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 30.—Six persons are known to have been killed and many were injured seriously when a fast Big Four Pullman train, en route from Boston to Cincinnati, struck an automobile at a grade crossing at the north city limits today.

The engine left the tracks and turned over in the ditch, four Pullman sleepers piling on top of it. All of the cars in the train with the exception of a dining car, left the tracks.

The train, due in Columbus at 7:50 o'clock, was more than an hour late and was reported running 65 or 70 miles an hour. It is one of the heaviest and finest trains operated by the Big Four. The automobile was struck at the Oakland Park avenue crossing, the wreckage piling up at the North Broadway crossing.

The known dead are Horace Holbrook, Warren, O., publisher; Earl Wilson, fireman, of Columbus; J. W. Klee, fireman, of Cleveland; Mrs. Frank S. Hemminger, of Columbus, wife of an attorney who was driving the automobile that was struck; Robert Hemminger, aged 5, her son; infant Hemminger.

Rescue workers said that other dead may be under the wreckage. Every available ambulance and doctor was rushed to the scene and soon the injured were being received at the hospitals.

PREMIER LENINE IS AGAIN GOING WEST

[By Associated Press] LONDON, Mar. 30.—Premier Lenine is dying, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Stockholm today. The soviet legation in Helsinki has received a confidential message from Moscow to that effect. The patyalsie in his right arm is spreading, according to the dispatch.

After his death, the quoted message adds, a military dictatorship will be established, headed by Minister of War Trotsky, with four or five of his associates.

The Moscow official bulletin of March 29 said Premier Lenine's condition was unchanged except for a slight improvement in temperature.

N. Y. DETECTIVES CATCHING BANDIT ARE WOUNDED

Mistaken Identity Starts Duel, But They Get Their Man

[By Associated Press] NEW YORK, March 30.—A tragic victim of policeman's zealotness, Detective H. J. Cordes was in a hospital here today with four bullets in his body while alongside him lay an 18-year-old alleged bandit, James Whitten.

It was a case of two members of the force, strangers to each other, one a detective, the other a police sergeant, both in plain clothes and both off duty, who mistook each other for a bandit. The sergeant, James McDade, escaped unhurt. Sergeant McDade noticed two men dart into a cigar store. McDade watched them through the window. The men suspected were Cordes and his brother Harry. Cordes, in turn, had seen three men, two of them fumbling near the store safe. He knew them for bandits, so he drew his revolver and said: "Stick 'em up!"

Sergeant McDade saw Detective Cordes pull out his gun. He thought Cordes was a bandit. So he drew his own standing behind Cordes and said: "Now you stick 'em up!"

Thinking McDade was the "outside man" of the burglars, Cordes wheeled to fire. He met bullets from the bandits and McDade. As he fell he grabbed the legs of one of the fleeing bandits and shot Whitten in the abdomen. As Cordes lurched McDade fired at the detective's brother, striking him but not wounding him seriously. The other bandit was caught by pedestrians.

LANSING-ISHLI PACT IS CANCELLED WITH JAPS

[By Associated Press] WASHINGTON, March 30.—The celebrated Lansing-Ishli agreement by which the United States in 1917 recognized Japan's "special interests" in China, has been cancelled by mutual agreement of the Washington and Tokio governments.

Diplomatic negotiations between the two governments have resulted in a new understanding, based primarily on the provisions of the nine power pact, written at the Washington armaments conference and regarded as applying more effectively "the principles of the open door equality of opportunity in China."

TULSA, OKLA., REFINERY IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

[By Associated Press] MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 30.—Receivers for the Constantin Refining Company of Tulsa, one of the largest independent operators in the Mid-Continent oil field, were appointed by Judge Robert L. Williams, in United States District Court here yesterday, on petition of the Spitzer-Rorick Trust and Savings Bank of Toledo, Ohio, it became known today. The petition charged the company had defaulted in payments of a $5,000,000 bond issue.

SOVIET AMBASSADOR WOULD SNEAK INTO U. S.

[By Associated Press] WASHINGTON, Mar. 30.—Reports that Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, former Soviet ambassador to the United States, his secretary Gregory Weinstein, and Mme. Kalinin, the widow of the late Soviet leader, have a deluge of protests.

Orders have been issued to all immigration inspectors to watch for them and if application is made by them for entry to make a thorough investigation as to their purpose.

Orders previously were issued to cover the entrance of Weinstein, who is on the list of undesirable. Madame Kalinin, however, is said to be coming to America at the instigation of a children's relief society to make a two months' tour appealing for aid for famine sufferers. American consuls at Riga and Reval were instructed to issue her passports upon her assurance that her activities would be confined to Red Cross work.

INVESTIGATE ALLEGED JURY TAMPERING CHARGE

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Episcopal church, with interment at Grandview Memorial Park. Kiefer & Eyerkirk Undertaking company in charge.

Jerry Jeter Holding His Audiences

Another big increase in attendance on the tabernacle service last evening over the two preceding evenings, and as the crowd grows in preaching power. Last night he spoke very forcibly, choosing for his subject, "Turning Loose the Gospel Gun Against the Most Deadly Poison to the Human Being, Sin," declaring that people have heard pacifists, compromisers and sanctimonizers of the very open pollution of this deadly poison of the human race. After the announcement of Forest Lawn Easter service and the noon meeting at the Glendale theater, a splendid offering was made. Services were announced for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 and in the evening at 7:30. Sunday services will be held at 2:30 and 7:30.

GOOD FRIDAY AT FIRST LUTHERAN
"Calvary" will be the subject of the address by Dr. H. C. Funk at the First Lutheran Church, corner East Harvard and Maryland, at 7:45 o'clock tonight. Special music. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MISS ANDERSON IS CANTATA TONIGHT WED TO GEORGE MARTIN

Two fond hearts were made one Thursday evening at the Presbyterian manse on South Cedar street at 8 o'clock when Miss Anna Amelia Anderson was united in marriage to George J. Martin, Rev. Louis Tinsling officiating owing to the absence from the city of Dr. W. E. Edmonds. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins were witnesses. Mrs. Martin has been an employee of the Pacific Southwest Bank of this city, and Mr. Martin is connected with the Glendale Market on East Broadway. They will make their home in this city.

MODERN WOODMEN CAMP TO RECEIVE FORTY MEMBERS
At the regular meeting of the Modern Woodmen Camp, held last night at the American Legion hall with Dr. B. S. Warner in charge, rehearsals were held for the dedication of forty new members which is to take place in two weeks. Of this number thirty new members have already been secured. The work will be put on by the drill team and officers of the Glendale lodge.

R. T. W. CLASS HOLDS REGULAR MEETING
The members of the R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Marple, 465 West Millford street. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Nellie Hill, with "The Easter Story" as the subject. A short business session followed in charge of the president, Mrs. J. Roger Bentley. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing. There were thirty ladies present. Delicious refreshments suggestive of the Easter season were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Ruth Ladd, Mrs. Bertha Howard, Mrs. Gladys Boynton, Mrs. Jean Lore and Mrs. Albert Marple.

HONOR LUNCHEON GUESTS AT HOME
Mrs. E. W. Kinney and daughter, Mrs. Albert Leighton, of 123 West Elk avenue entertained at their luncheon guests Thursday, Miss Margaret Goetz, Gilman Williams, the baritone singer and Mrs. Cohen and two daughters of New York City.

MRS. PACKER ENTERTAINS FOR HER GUESTS
Mrs. Stephen C. Packer of 362 Riverdale drive entertained with an afternoon of bridge on Wednesday, complimenting her house-guest, Mrs. F. R. Singleton of Seattle cousin of Mr. Packer. Mrs. Singleton has been a guest here for about three weeks and will return Monday to her home in the north.

LOCAL ELKS VISIT SANTA MONICA TO PUT ON WORK

Officers and members of Glendale lodge of Elks No. 1289 numbering about 150 attended the meeting last night of the Santa Monica Elks. There were three special P. E. cars that left Glendale early in the evening and a number of the members of the local lodge motored to the beach hotel. The Glendale officers put on the initiatory work for a class of eight candidates. The meeting was one of the largest attended that had ever been held by the Santa Monica lodge. The big meeting was staged as a sort of farewell to Exalted Ruler Gardner of Santa Monica, it being the last meeting over which he was to preside. After the business meeting lunch was served and an entertainment provided. A feature of the evening was the complimentary band concert given by Glendale and Santa Monica Elks' bands.

Boy Scouts Return From Mountain Hike

Twenty-six tired and grim Boy Scouts of the Verdugo Hills district returned to Glendale Thursday afternoon from their four-day pioneer hike to the summit of Mt. Gleason. "Everyone of us was dead tired by the time we reached the mouth of the Big Tujunga," said Scout Executive Harold Benner, who accompanied the scouts, "but there wasn't a fellow in the crowd who didn't have a great time and feel that he had accomplished something in making the trip."

Mrs. R. E. Chase to Attend District Meet

Mrs. R. E. Chase of 239 North Orange street, who is district chairman of drama for the federation of women's clubs, will attend the convention to be held next week at San Luis Obispo. Mrs. Chase will be stopping at the clubhouse there with the other officers of the district. Mrs. Chase is also curator of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club of Glendale.

SHRINE CLUB TO HOLD SMOKER ON APRIL 4
The regular business meeting of the Shrine club of Glendale will be combined with a stag smoker and entertainment, to be held on Wednesday night, April 4, at the Pearl Keller hall, 109-A North Brand boulevard. The club has an option on temporary clubrooms which they can enjoy pending the completion of the proposed Masonic temple. This option will be brought before the membership for action. The matter of the dinner-dance which the committee is arranging for Saturday, April 7, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse will also be brought up.

HIGH BOYS TO PLAY BALL
Next Wednesday boys on the track team of Glendale high who have been too busy with track work to play ball, will pick a team from their number which will play a practice game with the regular baseball team of the school.

On Thursday, B. S. freshman will have a track meet with the combined track teams of Glendale and Wilson Avenue Intermediates on the Glendale field.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer, of 463 West Vine street will be the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wiley of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Sr., of 462 West Vine street left last night on a week's business and pleasure trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. F. M. George of 341 West California avenue had as visitors recently Mrs. Stoddard of Indiana. Mrs. Ruby Stoddard of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Paul Likens of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Walter Ransburg of Minneapolis, Minn., will be the house guest of Mrs. George B. Pratt of 356 West Myrtle street for several days. Mrs. Ransburg is a friend of Mrs. Pratt's father, W. J. Fleener of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon from Bishop, Calif., will be Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Alexander of South Maryland avenue. Their arrival is expected today.

Dr. C. L. Marleneo, one of Glendale's eye specialists, has just completed plans for the erection of a modern 4-family apartment on his Hollywood lot. C. G. Rodolph, residing at 355 West Colorado street, drew the plans and has been awarded the contract. Work is to start immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Offutt and son Jack of 1144 East Broadway, will motor to Bakersfield to spend the week-end with relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds motored to Fillmore Thursday afternoon, where Mr. Edmonds addressed the brotherhood of the Fillmore Presbyterian Church following a banquet.

Miss Mae Murray, Dorothy O'Brien and Mrs. S. Mooney of Butte, Montana, who are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. O'Brien of 207 W. Eulalia street, have been spending the week-end at Berkeley Hills with Mrs. Mooney's brother, Mr. Raymond O'Brien.

Mrs. C. A. O'Brien will entertain at dinner on Easter Sunday in honor of her house guests, Miss Mae Murray, Dorothy O'Brien and her daughter, Mrs. S. Mooney of Butte, Montana.

The Wild Flower club will meet on Monday night, April 2, at Mrs. H. G. Ackley's residence, 236 North Kenwood street. Everyone is welcome.

EAGLE ROCK CITY NEWS

NEW STATE BANK
TO BE OPENED ON SATURDAY

Many happy returns of the day to the new Eagle Rock State Bank! This new institution will open its doors for business Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in temporary quarters in the Mission building at 734 East Colorado boulevard, and plans are being laid for a rushing first day's business. The temporary quarters in the Mission building will serve until a permanent location and a more suitable home can later be selected and built.

The advent of this new banking institution in Eagle Rock marks another step forward for this prosperous little city. It is evidence of the healthy commercial life of the community, and under the expert guidance of those who have been chosen as officers and directors, it will prove all that is safe, sound and progressive in modern banking.

L. M. Maynard, 410 E. Stanley avenue, who is in charge of the Economic Research and advertising department of the Citizens' National Bank of Los Angeles, was elected vice-president Wednesday night.

H. B. Schultz, president, and G. Ellis Fry, cashier, are at present located in other cities, but plan to make Eagle Rock their permanent place of residence as soon as arrangements can be made. Mr. Fry has negotiations under way at the present time to secure a building lot here upon which he plans to erect a beautiful residence. C. E. Marsh, chairman of the board, is also an Eagle Rock resident, living in the Dahlia Heights district. So the new bank can be termed "home governed."

The Eagle Rock State Bank already shows its alertness, in the manner of grasping the significance of its opening day. There are few people who do not recognize the honor of being in some way connected with the inauguration of a new enterprise, especially in a community of this size where new banks are not born every day. The silver Artpoint pencils which will be given to each first day depositor will undoubtedly draw large crowds out to take part in the opening ceremonies. This is a unique scheme in banking experience, and all those who answer the appeal will receive a souvenir gift that will be durable and useful. And those who come to take an active part will feel that they have helped establish this new bank in Eagle Rock. It eventually amounts to that, Mr. Maynard, vice-president, points out, "because every dollar that passes through the receiving teller's window is a link in the chain that binds the flesh and blood people of Eagle Rock to an institution that can foster their interests and safeguard their prosperity." Every first day depositor will forge a rivet in the structure.

The Eagle Rock State Bank will keep open house in its temporary quarters from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening, so that those people who work out of town will have an opportunity to visit the bank in the evening. The officers state that there will be a pencil for every depositor, as an abundance are on hand. There is much speculation as to what lady and gentleman will receive the special gold pencils that have been prepared for the first depositors to arrive at the bank's door on Saturday.

GENARO LOOKS FORWARD TO QUITTING PRIZE RING

[By Associated Press]
NEW YORK, March 30.—Fate almost miscast Frankie Genaro, the 21-year-old New Yorker who recently toppled Pancho Villa, the Filipino, off his American flyweight throne.

Frankie, a veteran of 30 professional ring battles, is the father of two children, Marie, 3, and Anthony, 1. He was married when he was seven.

His father died when he was young and Genaro went to work driving a butcher's delivery wagon. His slight build and knowledge of the nag he drove prompted a friend to suggest that Frankie try jockeying for a living.

But after two days at the track at Gravesend Bay he was thrown off the lot for beating several other jockeys into submission. As the Paulist Fathers looked after an athletic club named in their honor, Father Morris suggested that Genaro try boxing.

He was a success from the start. Nick Florio, a club trainer, took pains with Genaro and within a year and a half had his protégé in shape to represent the United States on its boxing team at the Olympic Games. He won the world's amateur title for his country, defeating J. Diveto of Denmark in the final bout.

Upon his return to the United States Genaro became a professional, and after three years has reached all but the top rung of his class; the world's title is held by Jimmy Wilde of England.

Still one of his mother's financial supporters, the new champion is anxious, he says, to hurry through his boxing career, win the world's title and take the lucre that goes with it, and then sit down and think up something for a business man to do.

The average woman is so contrary that she has faith in her husband because nobody else has.

MUSIC STUDY CLUB
MEETS TO STUDY
MENDELSSOHN

The Wednesday Morning Music Study club met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kirksey, 210 East Hill avenue, and spent an enjoyable morning studying the life and music of the great composer, Chopin. Mrs. Constance Braasch interpreted some of the greatest of Chopin's works at the piano. At the club's next session, which will also be held at Mrs. Kirksey's home, the work of the composer, Mendelssohn, who is loved as much, and perhaps more than any other great master, will be studied.

RAYMOND THEATRE
LENDS LEADING PLAYERS

Through the personal friendship of Mrs. Fischer for Miss Sinclair who is with the Smith-King Players now putting on productions at the Raymond Theatre in Pasadena, and through the courtesy of the management of that theatre, Mr. Hugh Metcalf, who is also a prominent member of the company, will appear in the March Community Play group being produced at the Central School on April 4 and 5. Miss Sinclair will take the lead in the play with Mr. Metcalf. The title has been changed for purposes of advertising from "Her Only Son" to "As Ye Sow." Mrs. Sinclair, who is also the authoress of this play, is in a position to interpret the leading role far better than anyone else. Mr. Metcalf is not only preparing in the cast, but he is directing the play as well, so it promises to be one of the most finished productions that the Community Players have put on for some time.

EASTER EGG HUNT AT HOME OF THE ARBOGASTS

The Sunday school members of the First Congregational church will participate in an Easter egg hunt tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. E. Arbogast, 212 North Highland avenue. The egg hunt itself will be the main feature of the program, but there will be many games started so that all those present are assured a good time. Indian, as well as American games will be taught the children. Each child will be allowed to bring a guest, if that guest does not attend any other Eagle Rock Sunday school.

The Once Over

BY H. I. PHILLIPS

LOSS OF A TOE BY PRINCE GEORGE STIRS DUMM AND DUMMER

Dummer's Ignorance of World Events Nettles Dumm, Who Declares Yearly Information on the Toe Situation in Every Royal Family is a Matter of the Utmost Importance

"It's too bad about Prince George of England," remarked Senator O. Howe Dumm with a note of sadness.

"What's happened to him?" asked Representative A. Lott Dummer.

"Your ignorance of world events is appalling," returned Senator Dumm. "Do you mean to stand there and tell me you haven't heard?"

"I do," admitted Dummer. "He's lost two of his toes," announced Dumm with the manner of one who was recording an event of the greatest significance.

Dummer hung his head in shame. "Well, I can only say that the prince put something over on me," he confessed weakly. "How he ever lost 'em without my knowing it is beyond me. I read the papers very carefully."

"It was on all the first pages," declared Dumm, "and in big type in most of 'em. There is really no excuse for your being in complete ignorance of an important event of this nature. Some day a king or premier or something is going to cut himself while shaving and you won't know a thing about it."

"I try to read everything," insisted Dummer. "As a rule, I instinctively spot the big stuff. In fact, I think I have a nose for news."

"What you evidently need is a nose for toes," admonished Senator Dumm. "If the fourth son of the King of England can lose two toes this way without your having the slightest knowledge of it, what's to prevent him losing five or six or even all ten, with the uttermost secrecy as far as you are concerned? If all people were like you there'd be no track kept of royal toes at all."

"What difference would it make?" demanded Dummer.

"What difference! Why, it's of the utmost importance to know how the princes of the world are fixed for toes. People follow the affairs of ruling families very closely these days. Can you imagine anything more embarrassing than to have a toe shortage exist in the family of King George, or any other monarch for that matter, and have the subject brought up under circumstances where you'd have to show your ignorance by admitting you knew nothing about it?" Dummer hung his head.

"It's the duty of a well-informed

BUILDING PERMITS HAVE RISEN TO
$295,000

The $300,000 mark set as the goal for building permits for the month of March will be reached by Saturday, if permits continue to be issued at the city hall in the rapid succession in which they have been handed out recently. The grand total is now something over $295,000. Yesterday an eight room residence and garage permit was issued to Ruth Agnes Carden of Santa Ana, through the architects and builders, Baldwin and Son. It is estimated that the place will cost $6100, and will be located at 120 and 122 Rosemont street. Another permit was issued to the same firm, for a like dwelling, which they will construct for Etta May Ellis of Los Angeles, at 146 and 148 Rosemont street.

George F. Newhall took out another permit for an eight room residence which he will build at 355 Campus drive. This will cost $6000. A few more permits like these for tomorrow and the grand total will be exceeded beyond all expectations.

ACME OF MODERN FICTION ADDED TO LIBRARY

"The Church on the Avenue," by Helen R. Martin, is one of the delightful new novels added to the already crowded shelves of the Eagle Rock library. It is a vivid, dramatic story of a rising young minister of the conservative type and his wide-awake, earnest and progressive wife with very modern ideas. The plight of the minister when called upon to choose between present-day Christian ideals and the safety of a lucrative, and comfortable post, is made more difficult by the refusal of his courageous, clear-thinking wife to "play safe." The novel is peculiarly modern in theme and treatment and is bound to create wide discussion.

The author of this book, Helen Martin, has to her credit also the whimsical play, "Erstwhile Susan," one of Mrs. Fluke's great stage successes. Her stories of the characteristics and romances of the Pennsylvania Dutch have also won her large recognition in the literary field.

Other new books in the library are: "The Seven Conundrums," by E. Phillips Oppenheim; "Queen of the World," by George Weston; "Black Oxen" by Gertrude Atherton, and "The Squirrel-Cage" by Dorothy Canfield. These comprise some of the best of late fiction.

The Eagle Rock State Bank
OPENS TOMORROW
March 31stWhat Lady and What Man Will Get The Gold Pencil on the Opening Day?

Every First Day Depositor who opens an account at the Eagle Rock State Bank on March 31st will receive a handsome and useful silver Art-point pencil.

These gifts were designed and manufactured especially for this occasion. They are tokens of an unusual event and as time goes on they will become priceless to their owners

This commercial and savings bank, incorporated under the banking laws of the State of California, and therefore supervised by the representatives from your state banking department, is for the service of the people of this community.

Hand in hand with this foundation for confidence shall go a progressively useful and intelligent personal co-operation with its customers. This service will be willingly rendered without regard for the size of its customers' accounts.

The directors and officers of the Eagle Rock State Bank have so planned the functions of this institution that an association with it will offer a great variety of advantages. They believe that banking is a fundamental business and by virtue of the close and beneficial relationship which a banking institution must have to both the community and the individual, it must operate entirely along such lines as will develop a connection between this institution and each of its depositors which will offer an unlimited opportunity for the growth of both.

The services of the Eagle Rock State Bank will be continually directed toward the betterment of the industrial, commercial and home life of this district. In the final analysis, it will be found that this bank will be guided by a spirit of helpfulness to all. Therefore, whatever your efforts in this section may be, you can confidently rely on the cordial and intelligent assistance of this bank.

We repeat, a new outpost will be established in the progressive march of the commercial life of Eagle Rock, for from the spacious and completely equipped quarters of this new bank will radiate a type of banking service that will yield honor and success to those who co-operate in making its Opening Day on March 31st an event of historical significance.

THAT BABY OF YOURS

Why not have the baby date its financial progress from the opening of this new State Bank in Eagle Rock by letting it become one of our first day-depositors?

Open an account for it on Opening Day and let us present the little one with one of these silver pencils, which may be laid aside for use later on in life. The token will help you drive home to the child the important lesson of thrift. What is more, it will forever identify the bank with your baby, and your baby with this bank, affording untold pride and pleasure in the years to come.

There is only one First Day—only once that a bank marks its advent into the commercial and home life of a community and in later years when growth has led your baby of today up and along the great highway of success, he will appreciate your care and forethought in starting him on the road to success by opening his account in this bank.

HI Y BOYS HAVE BATTLE WITH SEA GALES

when the wind again hit them. They decided then to make for the shore and landed at the McCahill ranch, where they renewed their stock of fuel, which had been expended in the fruitless 200-mile run. They cruised down the shore and put in at Portuguese Bend and early the next morning steered for Catalina Island, which they reached without mishap. There they made their camp happily, feeling, all things considered, that they had been very fortunate, as the wind, according to mariners on shore, had been blowing at the rate of 60 miles an hour.

Around their first campfire at Catalina the boys were wonderfully entertained by Captain Collins, who told them of his experiences in France during the war, where he was a captain of engineers in the 91st division, and suffered wounds which kept him in a hospital for two years.

During their stay they published a camp paper, "Try and Get It," and also organized two "Try and Get It" clubs, one for Burbank and one for Glendale, the party being made up about equally of boys from the two cities. Other diversions included an interesting ball game and a goat hunt.

Following is the personnel of the party from Glendale: Paul Edmonds, Charles Thompson, Marion Morrison, Thomas Wood, Jr., Arlin McCormick, Newton McGillis, Angelino Buckner, Laverne Fletcher and Edwin Collins.

The Burbank boys were: Carl and William Hanner, Harry Harding, Paul Sanderson, Douglas Daniels, Merrill Dunham and Bob Mead.

Leaders accompanying the boys were: Secretary Rex Kelley, H. L. Butterfield, Freeman Knox and Captain E. Z. Collins.

of the amount so bid, said check to be payable to applicant, or deposited in any reliable depository of the city of Glendale; and said applicant further agrees not to sell to the Pacific Electric Railway company, Southern Pacific Railway company, the Atchison, Topeka and Salt Lake Railway company, the Union Pacific Railway company, the Western Pacific Railway company, or any other company, subsidiary to, or in any way connected with any of the steam or electric railways, now or later operating in the city of Glendale, until after applicant has first notified said city of Glendale, and for thirty days after such notification; providing, however, that applicant be permitted to sell, transfer and convey all its right, title and interest in the rights and privileges granted him under this application, and the interurban lines running into the city of Glendale, to any corporation which may hereafter be formed for the purpose of taking over such rights, interests and privileges, and assuming and agreeing to meet all of the obligations of said applicant, relative thereto.

Applicant prays that you honorable body will consider this application at the earliest time possible, and that after due consideration, he be given permit as herein requested, and for all other proper relief. Respectfully submitted,
C. D. GULICK,
Applicant.

CITY COUNCIL WARDS PERMIT TO C. D. GULICK

majority of the members of the city council in regular session.

"Out citizens, it seems plain to me, are tired of hearing arguments over transportation questions and want some action and relief. Therefore I wish to go on record as being in favor of granting Mr. Gulick a permit under the terms of his amended application and containing the provisions outlined above."

Prior to the granting of this permit the former action of the city council in granting to the Glendale Motor Bus company a franchise to operate buses on the streets of Glendale, was rescinded. This motion was made by Councilman Davis and seconded by Councilman Lapham. This permit was granted on December 9, 1922, and that action of the council was rescinded in order that every more in connection with the granting of the permit to Mr. Gulick might be legal.

"The council made a little mistake in granting this franchise to the Glendale Motor Bus company," said Councilman Stephenson. "Such an organization does not and never did exist and therefore no franchise can be presented to it."

At last night's session Mr. Gulick was represented by Attorney Mattison B. Jones, who gave a brief history of the motor bus question in Glendale, bringing the matter right up to the present time.

He read the following letter from the board of directors of the Glendale chamber of commerce on this question, written February 9, and containing a resolution adopted by the board:

"Resolved, that we, the board of directors of the chamber of commerce, on the report and recommendation of the transportation committee, do hereby approve of a bus line in Glendale as proposed by C. D. Gulick. In doing so we believe it is a good thing for Glendale and for the whole community."

The letter containing this resolution was signed by James Rhoades, secretary of the Glendale chamber of commerce. City Clerk Van Wie read a letter which was received by him on Thursday of this week. The second letter, which was signed by Jesse E. Smith, president of the chamber, contained the following resolution:

"Resolved, that we ask the city council to defer action on all bus franchises until a thorough investigation has been made of the financial condition of the company applying for a franchise and that no franchise be granted on application without it being accompanied by a bond sufficient to insure the carrying out by the applicant of the contract with the city."

Mr. Jones stated that as this resolution was passed by the board of directors of the chamber it did not speak for the chamber as a whole. The question had not, he said, been put to all the members of the chamber. Therefore, he said President Smith nor another officer of the chamber has any right to state that the sense of the resolution is concurred with by the members at large of the chamber.

In commenting on the granting of the permit the various councilmen voted in favor of this permit, had the following to say:

Mayor Robinson—"I am mighty glad to give this permit. I won't stand for the P. E. securing a further monopoly over the transportation to and in this city. If Gulick doesn't come through I'll vote to revoke the permit."

Councilman Davis—"I would give Gulick this permit if he did not have a dollar. The chamber of commerce asks that we make him furnish a bond. That's all bunk. Would the Pacific Electric be compelled to furnish a bond in the event we gave them a permit to extend their local lines? I'm in favor of giving Gulick a chance. He knows transportation and if he makes good Glendale will have an efficient bus system; if he doesn't, the city will at least not be any the worse off than it is now."

Councilman Lapham—"I am more than pleased to second Mr. Davis' motion to grant Mr. Gulick this permit. But I'll say right here that if he don't have his buses operating within 90 days I'll vote to revoke the permit."

The amended petition for the permit as filed with the city council by Mr. Gulick last night and in connection with the terms of which the permit was granted, may be found in another part of this paper.

It's difficult to convince the office holder that one bad term does not deserve another.

worn instead of a straw hat. The committee's recommendation was accepted.

M. B. Towman, secretary of the Glendale branch of the Automobile club gave a short talk on bills now before the legislature which he considered would affect the automobile industry. A motion was made that the Rotary club endorse recommendations as made by the auto club.

Mr. Crawford, president of the Burbank Rotary club invited the members of the Glendale organization to attend the presentation of the Burbank club charter, which will be a week from Monday night at the Sunset Canyon Country club.

W. A. Horn gave a short talk and presented himself as a candidate for the city council.

Mr. Shockley of the Astoria Rotary club brought greetings from that organization and expressed thanks to the Glendale club for financial assistance in the rehabilitation of Astoria, Oregon.

Owen Emery of the Boy Week entertainment committee reported that efforts will be concentrated on Friday, April 27, and that the plans included a boy's "Loyalty Parade" for that day.

Jack Huntley, chairman of the Boy Scout camp committee, presented a report advising that a ten-day option had been secured on the property known as Haynes Canyon. V. M. Hollister was chairman of the program which was on "Business Methods." The speakers were Harry Webb and Ed Hewitt, who told of "The Secret of Success in Business."

Among the visiting Rotarians were Ed Shockley of Astoria, Ore.; J. C. Williams of Marshalltown, Ia.; J. Will Johnson of Pueblo, Colo.; R. L. Anderson of Kingman, Ariz.; J. C. Stannard of Alameda, Calif.; G. W. Byers of Champaign, Ill., and J. C. Crawford, R. R. Spence, Jake Swall, Andy Fillbach, W. S. Sanderson, all of Burbank. Other visitors were Rev. Kamp of the Episcopal church and M. B. Towman of the Automobile club.

ODD FELLOWS PLAN BIG CELEBRATION IN APRIL

er committees—R. Rasmussen, W. N. Hunt, A. C. Anderson; chairman of concessions—Carl W. Schwitters.

The parade formation will include the Elks' band, executive officers of all Odd Fellows' lodges, executive officers of all Rebekah lodges, Los Angeles I. O. O. F. band, Rebekahs of all lodges, chairmen of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Odd Fellows of all lodges, autos to take care of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows who cannot march, and Glendale fire department.

After the parade disbands a basket picnic will be enjoyed at the Glendale city park. There will be an address of welcome by Mayor Spencer Robinson, followed with prayer by Rev. Norton and addresses by prominent members of the order. At 3 o'clock there will be a ball game between the Los Angeles I. O. O. F. and San Fernando Valley Stars, as well as field sports. At 6 o'clock in the evening the grand ball will be held.

Pendroy's Stage Easter Picture Show

As a special Easter treat of great significance and educational value, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pendroy have perfected arrangements for the loan exhibit of a painting "If Thou Hadst Known, O Jerusalem," by the famous French artist, Paul Mersereau. The picture, which is valued at $80,000, is owned by Mr. Fontaine, who is a world traveler, and who takes it with him as part of a choice collection of pictures which accompany him on his journeys.

The exhibit, which begins today and which will last for about 15 days, will be held on the third floor of Pendroy's Store in a special setting. There will be no admission charge and it should have a great appeal at this season.

BEAUTIFUL
BELLEHURST
GLENDALE
NOW SELLING
LIKE WILD-FIRE!

This magnificent old estate—an enchanted garden in the midst of the fastest forward marching city in America.

Come today—at once—and see with your own eyes these wonderful home-sites covered with fine old palms, magnolias, oaks, and hundreds of bearing orange, lemon and olive trees.

We are creating here in Glendale a unique residence park for Southern California—one that will rival and excel in beauty the thousand acres of distinctive home communities we have developed in Piedmont and Oakland in the San Francisco Bay region.

Bellehurst Park is dedicated to fine homes. Restrictions are carefully worked out to insure steadily increasing values. All city improvements of the highest type are now being installed at our expense. Pacific Electric trains only 2 blocks away. Four schools within 5 blocks. Very easy terms to first buyers.

MEN'S U. S. ARMY MUNSON-
LAST SHOES AT $2.95
Sizes 5 1/2 to 12.

Never again will you be able to buy these shoes at such a low price. We were lucky in finding a manufacturer, who was overstocked with them, and needed ready cash, so we bought them at almost one-half of the regular price. This shoes is made over the U. S. Army Munson last, with extra heavy stitching; special grained chrome brown leather used throughout. An ideal shoe for workmen, farmers, ice-men, postmen, carpenters and motormen, who are obliged to be on their feet all day.

Send correct size. Pay postman $2.95 on delivery, or send us a money order.

If you are not satisfied with these shoes after you examine them, we will promptly refund your money.

GLENDALE INVESTORS LOT BUYERS—HOMESEEKERS ATTENTION!

YESTERDAY I SAID—that I would sell 100 choice lots tomorrow and Sunday at such low prices and terms that they will sell like the proverbial hot cakes.

No ifs or buts about it. I am going to do it. These lots are in GLEN ANGELES TRACT, nearest to the heart of Glendale, 4 blocks from Brand Blvd., west on Riverdale Drive to San Fernando Blvd., and but a short distance to the center of the business district. Note the rapid growth of Glendale in the past few years.

Have you considered what the growth of Glendale will be in a few short years, and the big advance in realty values that is sure to come?

GROWTH of GLENDALE SHOWN IN POPULATION
Total in 1910 was	2,742
For year 1920 was	13,356
Per cent increase	393
Today, estimated at	40,000

Now is the time to buy, when values are growing fastest and big profits are assured you on the investment in Glen Angeles Tract.

A FEW FACTS

to emphasize the above statements and why these lots will be sold tomorrow and Sunday:

About 4000 persons per hour travel by Glen Angeles tract, which fronts on San Fernando Blvd., the main artery of travel to Los Angeles (only 7 miles); also to Oakland and San Francisco. Only 4 blocks to electric cars to Los Angeles. Within walking distance to S. P. main line station. Close to Griffith Park and Golf Links. Grand view of the hills. The opening of a new street to Riverside Drive will make the distance to Los Angeles 15 minutes shorter.

BEST OF IMPROVEMENTS

Street work, Cement Sidewalks, Curbing, Gas and Electricity, Water, etc., included in price of lots.

PRICE AND TERMS

Our low prices and terms will please and surprise you. A little money down will buy a lot or two. You don't need a

The Advancement Folks Hear of Progress Along Lines

The chief features of the noon-day meeting of the Glendale Advancement Association held Thursday were the approval of by-laws prepared by a committee headed by W. L. Truitt, which fixed the association year from January to January. There was some discussion of an increase of dues above the present $3 fee, but the consensus of opinion seemed to be it should remain at that figure, and that dues from January 1, 1923, to January 1, 1924, are now payable. Provision was made for such officers as are now functioning, for committees and such other matters of organization.

P. L. Hatch, superintendent of the Glendale-Montrose Railroad, indicated his desire to join the association. He said the Railroad Commission had granted permission for the Glendale avenue extension, and that the only matter that is delaying the beginning of actual construction is the securing of a franchise from the City of Los Angeles for an interconnecting track at Glassell Park, concerning which no difficulty is anticipated.

Dr. Charles A. Stuart waggishly suggested that some of the annexationists be sent to Los Angeles to use their influence with the city council there, but C. W. Ingledue declared, referring to "annexationists," "there is no such animal."

Dr. Stuart urged that the organization go on record as opposed to the granting of any franchise for a bus line on Glendale avenue which would come in competition with the Glendale-Montrose line. The suggestion was put to vote which was unanimously against a Glendale avenue bus line.

Dr. Stuart likewise said he wished to correct the impression which had gone abroad that a trunk-line sewer is to be laid on Glendale avenue. Instead, he said, such lines would be on the cross thoroughfares of Colorado and Broadway.

The balance of the session was devoted for the most part to a discussion of a desirable pavement for Glendale avenue. Mr. Finley reported on behalf of the committee which made a tour of suburbs of Los Angeles Wednesday. Mr. Kinch confirmed in a general way the statements made by Mr. Finley. As a contribution to the discussion, he read a letter received from E. E. East, highway investigating engineer of the Automobile Club of Southern California, relative to the best types of pavement. The letter is reprinted elsewhere in the Press.

Secretary Nelson called up City Manager Reeves to state how far the city council had committed itself relative to the width and the kind of paving to be laid, and whether under direct tax on abutting property or an assessment district.

Mr. Reeves replied that nothing had been done as yet, but that present proceedings contemplated the uniform paving of the thoroughfare throughout its entire width, and with the kind of pavement asked for in the majority petitions of property owners that had been presented to it, which called for concrete.

The formation of an assessment district would involve the council in a lot of trouble, he declared, because it would make a precedent for every other street to be paved. No action was taken, the paving question being referred back to the committee and to such individual members as were interested, for further investigation.

A resolution was adopted expressing the sorrow of the association over the death of its member, Mrs. Harriet Fox Frank, and instructing the secretary to send a floral piece together with a copy of the resolution to Mr. and Mrs. Harry James.

Francis Gordon, representing the Forest Lawn Memorial Park Association was introduced and invited all present to attend the Easter sunrise service at 5:30 next Sunday morning, describing the community service program which would be given.

WAY JOHN D. MAKES PAY

[By Associated Press]
NEW YORK, March 30.—Each week, $229,742 accrues to John D. Rockefeller, Jr. in dividends from stock owned by him in nine Standard Oil companies, it is revealed by a calculation made by Dow Jones & Co., from testimony given in the senate's recent investigation of the oil industry.

Rockefeller's annual dividends from his stock in the concerns—approximately one-sixth of all the shares—total close to $12,000,000, it was shown. At current prices, his holdings in these nine companies are worth approximately $410,000,000. The concerns are the Atlantic Refining company, the Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard of California, Ohio Oil company, Pacific Oil and Gas, Prairie Pipe Line, Standard of New York, Illinois Pipe Line and the Vacuum Oil company.

The elder Rockefeller, founder of the Standard Oil group is not the owner of one per cent of the stock of any of these companies, the survey shows.

GERMANS SAVE POSTAGE

[By Associated Press]
BERLIN, March 6.—One of the most popular forms of investment for Germans anxious to guard against depreciations of the mark has been the collection of postage stamps. Large sums have already been spent in this way by the well-to-do and the stamp business in Germany has made new records.

The German government has established an official department known as the dispatching department for stamp collectors, which supplies stamps to subscribers as soon as they are issued and attempts to revive as many of the old issues as possible for sale purposes.

RUM SHIP SINKS IN GALE

[By Associated Press]
HIGHLANDS, N. J., Mar. 30.—The queen of the Highlands rum running fleet was lost during the heavy northwest gale Wednesday.

The queen ship, largest and fastest putting out from Highlands to a rum armada off shore was lost while making her second trip to the maritime liquor mart.

When she started for shore with 100 cases of liquor, having an estimated value of $7500, she encountered a 48-mile gale which forced her to return to the lster, a British steamer which once served as a yacht for Robert Goellet, from which she had purchased her cargo.

The lster took care of the crew until the gale abated. Then they were landed by a rum runner from New York.

LEGION NEWS

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

At Kansas City in 1921, during the third national convention of the American Legion, about 200 women, representing 42 of the 48 states, held the first national convention of the American Legion Auxiliary of the American Legion, which they then rechristened The American Legion Auxiliary. At New Orleans, coincident with the fourth national convention of the American Legion, about 500 women, representing every one of the 48 states and Hawaii, the Canal zone, France and Mexico besides, held the second national convention of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Which speaks volumes for The American Legion Auxiliary. Officially just about a year old, the American Legion Auxiliary is today one of the most powerful organizations of women in the country. It has members in Europe, Asia and the two Americas. It has departments organized in every state and the other territories and countries mentioned. It is a unified, hard-working organization. In Glendale the Auxiliary is no exception in this respect.

Headed by President Margaret Kneading and an active staff of officers, the rapidly growing membership of nearly 100 earnest ladies is quietly doing wonderful work. No emergency relief call, either within or without the Legion, is neglected and willing aid is rendered to any other kindred organization such as the Red Cross which calls for assistance.

Notable among recent and present services are: the active participation in making the Legion's late "Educational week" a big success in Glendale.

Two days a month the sick and relief committee provides warm meals served "like home" to the disabled workers at the Legion Hut, 16th and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles, where many unfortunate lads are working out their own salvation.

GOTHAM FIRE KILLS TWO, INJURES SIXTEEN

[By Associated Press]
NEW YORK, March 30.—Two firemen were killed and 16 injured today while fighting a spectacular fire that swept two factories and four tenements in the east side, for a time threatening Bellevue Hospital with its two thousand patients.

The dead firemen and most of the injured were burned beneath a brick wall which was toppled to the street by a gas explosion. Others were burned while rescuing occupants of the blazing tenements.

BERKELEY, Calif., March 28.—The Forestry club of the University of California planted trees at recent exercises, dedicating one to Luther Burbank, and another to Dr. Ralph Fernow, late professor of forestry who is said to have established the first school of forestry in the western hemisphere.

SANTA CLARA, Calif., March 28.—Edgar H. Keimholz of Long Beach who is the new University of Santa Clara athletic coach, was greeted by the students in a body when he arrived here recently. He announced football practice for August.

FOR CITY COUNCILMAN
TUESDAY, APRIL 10TH

A City Government is like a business—either run at a profit or a loss. My 15 years as a successful business man in Glendale qualifies me to represent you on our Board of City Councilmen. If I have the honor of being elected by you as your representative, I pledge my word of honor to adhere to my platform as stated here below:

- I am in favor of Public Comfort Stations, centrally located.
- I am in favor of extending considerations to all parts of Glendale—North, South, East and West—all one Big Glendale.
- I am in favor of repairing our streets at the least possible expense to the property owners.
- I am in favor of taxing to the limit all outside peddling and soliciting.
- I am in favor of all forms of organized labor for the betterment of the working classes.
- I am in favor of Glendale city jobs for Glendale city men and city contracts for city merchants.
- I shall favor lower street car fares, telephones, gas, water and electricity.
- I shall endeavor to make the collection of garbage, tin cans, paper and junk self-sustaining.
- I shall favor well lighted streets and alleys. More light, less crime.
- I favor the old form of city government—each department to manage its own affairs, with promotion from the ranks.
- I am in favor of easy access to Griffith Park with a cheap city bus fare to and from.
- I shall oppose all forms of graft and bribery and all unnecessary expenditure of the taxpayers' money, by first bringing it before the electors.
- I shall oppose all fool ordinances with a live and let live policy.
- I shall favor a satisfactory solution for a sewer system.
- I am opposed to the bond issue respecting the purchase of the Airport Acreage; also the Verdugo Park—not so much the price paid for same, but the manner in which said purchase was made, by not bringing it before the people to vote on.
- Industrial concerns, etc., will locate here on privately owned lands, if granted a permit from a city council to operate in an industrial district.
- I shall favor any and all proposals that will tend to lower our taxes. A clean city, kept clean; an honest-to-goodness economy policy, without fear or favor.

Your Interests shall be my Interests.
THANKS
Yours Truly, FRANK BOOTH.

NEWS OF BURBANK

VOTE FOR BURBANK SCHOOL TRUSTEE AT EDISON BUILDING BEFORE SIX O'CLOCK TONIGHT

Join in Election Contest and See That Your Candidate Is Not Defeated Because You Had No Interest in School Affairs

Polls were opened at 8 o'clock this morning for the school election. Unexpected interest was shown at the last minute. Few knew that the day would be any different from the commonly sleepy election day, when perhaps 10 per cent of the intelligent citizens of the town turn out to cast their votes.

It was rumored that D. J. Radcliff, the president of the board, would not run for re-election. His friends, upon hearing this, went to him and asked him to run. If elected, he said, he would be glad to accept the position, but as for conducting a campaign he refused to do so, feeling that, if after his long term of service, the people desired a change, they should have it.

BURBANK B. & P. W. CLUB SERVE AT SANTA ROSA

Burbank Organization Gives Informal Tea in Club Rooms

The Burbank Business and Professional Women's club gave a tea Thursday evening in the club rooms at the Santa Rosa apartment building. Miss Octavia Lesueur, president, and Mrs. May Clarke, vice president, presided at the serving table.

The new tea set which the club has just purchased was used for the first time. The club prides itself on the fact that the set was bought at the China factory in Burbank. The club's monogram is on every piece, with ninety pieces in the set.

The usual number of members were not able to be present Thursday evening. Many of the teachers were out of town. Two of the officers could not attend. Mrs. Gipson had a business engagement and Mrs. Deering is confined to her home on account of illness.

The monthly dinner of the club next Thursday will be the next meeting.

ENTERTAIN AT EASTER PARTY

Burbank People Enjoy Many Springtime Social Affairs

Springtime has furnished the theme for many happy social functions in Burbank. Especially has the past month been full of pleasant parties with this week having some very charming ones.

Mrs. E. A. Main was hostess to an Easter party for the wee ones of the primary department of the Baptist church Thursday afternoon. A rollicking egg hunt all over the ranch occupied the attention of the youngsters for the afternoon. Nearly as important as the central idea of the egg hunt was the ice cream and cake which the children enjoyed. Some of the mothers, teachers and officers assisted Mrs. Main in serving the luncheon.

Miss Emma Clader, 430 North Verdugo avenue, delightfully entertained the Los Angeles bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock and the afternoon was spent in playing bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Skeen were dinner guests at the Hotel Alexander Wednesday evening.

Mrs. C. A. Clarke and niece, Christine Krum of Walla Walla Court, have returned from a short visit with friends in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schaper, winter guests from Edgerly, South Dakota, at the Santa Rosa apartment building, are visiting in Santa Monica.

BEULAH SHOPPE ATTRACTS BUYERS

Burbank Beauty Parlors Lures Easter Shoppers

The Beulah Shoppe beauty parlors, 237 East San Fernando boulevard, is attracting many women of Burbank this week, for Easter shopping is the predominating thought in the minds of Burbank women. The perfectly lovely confections and concoctions of the milliner's art make the shoppers linger just to look at them even though they cannot buy them all.

The gorgeous array creates the desire of lady to have a different hat for every occasion. For there are hats wide brimmed or no brimmed, and with soft rolling brims. For the most part the hat section in the Beulah Shoppe looks like a bower of flowers, flowers of every sort and color, blossoms everywhere. Some of the large picture hats are drooping with the piled-up colorful blooms, while there are others without a single ornament.

Dull green lace and dull gold lace, bright blue flowers and vivid red roses, changeable silk crowns, catch the eye and sing of spring.

ENGLISH SPORTS WORRIED OVER WILDE

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, March 30.—England is alarmed over the prospect of having Jimmy Wilde, the Empire's only champion, knocked over by Pancho Villa, the little coffee-colored Filipino.

From the walls of the London press it would seem that the superiority of the American is so firmly established that it would be only a painful ceremony to go through with in transferring the crown.

"That Wilde should have decided to risk his great reputation after more than two years' abstention from boxing and at a period of his boxing career when it has been made plain that he is not the Wilde of old, invincible at his own weight and at anything up to a stone above it, will be a cause of regret to his thousands of admirers," Sporting Life (London) says.

"He has been urged again and again to retire, his defeat by Pete Herman. True, it was no disgrace to be beaten by such a man, for Wilde was trying to give away a stone to the best bantamweight we have seen in this country for a long stretch of years. It was evident in that contest that Wilde was not the man we used to know.

"Still, boxing is a business, and money, and Wilde has been tempted by an American offer which will put into his bank a small fortune."

Wilde isn't risking his great reputation by fighting now. He's adding to it by not following the example of American champions in picking up setups. Wilde's reputation now consists in what he was, not what he is, and if he is knocked out or loses to Villa, it will not detract one bit from what he was.

RED PEPPER HEAT ENDS RHEUMATISM

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.—Advertisement.

Truths in Epigram

One truth is clear; whatever is, is right. — Pope.

He who loves not his country can love nothing. — Byron.

The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure my business. — Aaron Burr.

Seek not by prayers to shake the will of heaven. — Virgil.

ROWDYISM ARMED

Almost every crime of violence, and almost every accidental shooting, calls attention to the habit of going armed. The rowdy carries a gun, perhaps not for definite evil purposes, but on the impulse of anger he draws it, and kills somebody. The footpad and the burglar, of course, rely upon deadly weapons as a chief agency in their callings. In most cases the citizen who could safely be trusted with a pistol, and who would use it only in self defense, after an attack by a ruffian, is the very one who shrinks from carrying it. He knows the danger, the possibility of error. He prefers to take chances with his hands empty.

From time to time there is talk concerning the placing of a ban on the carrying of concealed weapons. So far it never has accomplished anything. Decent and orderly men respect the law and obey it. The other type of men disobey this law as readily as any other law. To the robber out for a night's adventure, it matters nothing that by being armed he becomes amenable to penalty for an extra offense. The crime of having been armed could not well impress the burglar very deeply. He knows that if he is caught, it would be lost sight of in the presence of the greater crime. And he does not intend to be caught. A law against the carrying of weapons without due reason and without the consent of proper authority, could be enforced easily. There has been no attempt at enforcing. Sunday in the streets of Los Angeles a man in a passing car was shot and killed by one of a group engaged in fighting. Every man in that group, whether on the side of the aggressors or of the assailed, was carrying firearms, and not a single one of the lot had the shadow of moral right to be thus equipped.

THE CURRENT TOLSTOI

Count Leo Tolstoy was a great man, writer, philosopher, contributor to the thought of the world. He belonged to a period before Russia had been plunged into chaos and mental night. He was one of the towering figures in the realm of the intellect. His old age was a period of sorrow and regret. In his family relations he was unhappy, and doubtless this colored his view of life, and deprived his later observations of some measure of value. Nevertheless his departure was as the going out of a flaming beacon.

Genius seldom has passed from father to son. There is a son of Count Tolstoy who passes to and fro across America, pausing at each available rostrum, to tell the natives what ails them. The truth is that Americans do not care what he may think is the matter. They have no regard for his judgments. Perhaps he knows the other continent, and it awaits his message. He does not know this country, and it receives his message respectfully, only because of remembering the father. Let the gentleman tell Russia wherein it has erred, and point the way to reform. Or he might seek the people of Central Europe, and guide them in the paths back to reason and progress. It is singular enough that Tolstoy, and an innumerable band of other conversational experts, should continually be harping into the ears of the most powerful nation in the world that it is all wrong, and that it must reform. Shall it, then, adopt the methods of Europe? If so, why? They do not seem to have provided Europe with abundant happiness.

PLAYING WITH FIRE

A prominent financier of Philadelphia had been elevated to the pinnacle of publicity. The fierce light that beats upon a throne hardly could be more uncomfortably revealing. Accused of showing his attentions and money upon a characterless beauty, the truth comes out, because the woman in the case happens to be murdered. She was killed as an incident to robbery, or to keep her silent, or because she declined to enter into a blackmail plot. Or perhaps to close her lips. Her lips are mute, but it must seem to the man that a thousand tongues are proclaiming the drab and dreadful tale. Other names seem likely to be dragged into the story before the final chapter has been told.

There are certain conventions in the social world. Some refuse to be bound by these, accepting the risk; for there is a risk of tragedy. A reputation ruined represents tragedy. It is possible that the prevailing conception of what is due to convention, that is to say, to morals as set forth by long-accepted codes, has changed in recent years. The change has not been so fully endorsed as to afford safety to violators of the code. They may lead lives quite unknown to the associates they meet in ordinary relationships, but never are they safe. There is no sure way in which to guard their secret. The dual existence, fairly successful on the stage, is fraught with peril out in the world of reality.

To defy the canons of decency is to play with fire.

Four persons, one of these a woman, have given cash bail of $85,000 to be released from jail. They had been there a short time after arrest as members of a bootleg ring. The readiness with which they were able to furnish the necessary amount of cash indicates that there is money in the rum trade. Provided, of course, that the accused are connected with the trade mentioned. They have the benefit of the presumption of innocence.

A method of photographing the brain of a living person is said to have been perfected. This would be of inestimable service in case of disease of that organ such as an abscess or a clot requiring local treatment. But it would be embarrassing to the subject to have the negative come out blank.

AT THE CROSSING

Sunday the old story was repeated. A driver sought to cross in front of a rapidly approaching train. He acted precisely as though he had no thought that a train might be there. The result was about that which might have been expected. The machine was demolished, two of the three occupants killed, and the third badly injured.

It seems almost useless to attempt to impress a lesson through citation of so familiar a form of disaster, so many and futile have been the attempts. Each successive victim seems to have thought himself immune. The others had failed, but he could not. Apparently faith in the lucky star of the individual had been implicit in each instance.

That there will be accidents at grade crossings so long as such crossings exist, hardly is to be doubted. Yet the records will show that almost invariably such an accident might have been avoided. Drivers either become absent minded or utterly reckless. For some reason they refuse to grasp the simplest facts and from these draw a conclusion.

There are blind crossings, meaning those that do not afford a view of the track in both directions from the approach. The only logical attitude to take at such a crossing is that a train is nearing. The old exclamatory warning "Stop! Look! Listen," never should be forgotten nor neglected. The only time to drive across a railway track is when the certainty that the track is clear has been established. There is no crossing so completely a trap, that the truth on this point may not be determined by exercise of ordinary intelligence.

A woman is never sure that she is happily married until she discovers that she isn't.

OVERWORKING BEAUTY

By ESTELLE LAWTON LINDSEY

Said a brisk business woman to a crowd that was admiring some photographs of a radiantly beautiful, statuesque actress:

"She is beautiful, no getting away from that. She has a skin like alabaster; I know for I asked her to raise her veil and let me see it. And she has wonderful eyes—but they're just eyes, if you get my meaning."

"Well, what should they be?" flipped in one of those persons who has to have a blue print of everything. "What do you want besides eyes?"

"Something back of them" was the quick reply. "It's all right to make a cult of beauty; but beauty will get you nowhere if you specialize on it and nothing else. For example, the original of those superlatively lovely photographs has never gained the fame she craves. And she never will."

"Talk to her ten minutes and you'll know why. She couldn't even keep a husband. No wonder. Why I got so bored with that woman that I wanted to scream myself to death, and I was with her less than a quarter of an hour."

The girl with the plucked eyebrows raised them superciliously:

"I've always heard and read," she announced, "that beauty serves a woman better than brains, or magnetism or even money. Women who disparage beauty are—"

"Jealous?" finished the brisk professional woman. "Well, look about and make your own calculations. Beauty is a loadstone until you get stuck by the side of it and have nothing else, morning, noon and night. Fancy having a fear who could never enjoy the out of doors for fear of spoiling her skin, who refused to help with housework because she'd injure her lily hands and who never could enjoy an honest laugh because it might wrinkle the skin at the corners of her eyes."

"Why, even the most popular screen stars are not the most regularly beautiful; they are the women who are instinct with vitality and magnetism. The women who radiate health and are not afraid to use their features to convey their thoughts to those before the footlights."

"The trouble about women who specialize on beauty is that they overwork their only asset. They are like those unfortunate sisters who have had one operation, their only distinction, or only one child. They remind me of a fiddle that has a single string and they twang on it forever. It's monotony that kills; it's monotony that repels, and I do believe unrelieved beauty is the most monotonous thing on earth."

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

The public has been warned against purchasing relics from the tomb of Tutankhamen, but this doesn't do any good. The public will purchase just the same, anything that is proffered. Probably right now skilled artisans are engaged in the manufacture of Tutankhamen relics. In such respects as this the public delights to be swindled, for with a buoyancy of spirit never to be repressed, it accepts as genuine the article it knows to be bogus. Finally it learns to believe the article genuine.

There is much old colonial furniture being turned out from busy factories every day. Everybody knows this, but nobody, buying a piece of it, can be persuaded that the seller tricked him. The seller was of the exceptional kind. Besides, the furniture had real worm-holes. Look at 'em and see for yourself.

In many New England homes there is much fine colonial stuff, but it cannot be obtained. It belongs where it is. The owners would no more sell it than they would sell the family tombstones. The persistent bidder is gently denied at first. Later he is told to get out. If he comes back they set the dog on him.

This morose attitude of the New Englander has not the slightest effect on the volume of colonial furniture in the market. It does not discourage traffic. Neither will the fact that there are to be no Tutankhamen relics for sale, decrease the volume of the sales.

Report that George Jay Gould is ill in Europe, and likely to die, directs attention to a strange family. It has not been remarkable for achievement save in the case of the late Jay Gould, father of George, whose achievements were spectacular. The elder Gould had a genius for manipulation, and in his acquisitive processes was entirely unhampered of conscience. He collected a great many millions. For the most part the mantle of forgetfulness has been spread over the methods of collection.

For years George Jay Gould figured in financial circles, but never, even with all the millions that he had been handed to him, became an impressive figure. Latterly he had been standing in great measure.

Now they are describing a girl robber, whose mission is to run the automobile, while her companion deprives people of their money. She is described as a beautiful brunette. For this the blonde sisterhood should be grateful. Very often there comes into view, or there is visioned by the imaginative reporter, one of these she robs. Invariably heretofore she had been portrayed as a beautiful blonde.

Somebody has denounced the practice of Americans in going to France to procure divorce. That it is a bad practice, and not indicative of good faith or a good cause, goes without saying. An American citizen legally entitled to divorce may get it in the courts of the United States.

The fact has been prominent that all the French divorces of Americans have been granted to wealthy people. In instances there has been a definite showing that the whole transaction was fraudulent, that the party of the other part, had not even been notified that a divorce was to be sought. The news was broken by the announcement of the marriage that followed the divorce, and that had been the real purpose of the divorce.

It is surprising that the courts of France should lend themselves to such crookedness.

"Sarah Bernhardt died in poverty" remarks one commentator, without adding any explanation. Perhaps he meant that when one goes into the unknown, nothing is taken along. The human soul, as Kipling says, "is a very lonely thing." Venturing forth into the great spaces, it necessarily is propertyless.

A woman arrested for forgery had to be treated for alcoholism. It seems that she had been drinking hair tonic. Thus one thing leads to another. But what mysterious thing leads to the drinking of hair tonics?

Soviet authorities have condemned prelates of the Catholic church to death, a stay of execution having followed, however. In many ways the soviet authorities have demonstrated the depth of their stupidity and the fierceness of the malice that inspires them, but at making the mistake of murdering priests, for the offense of teaching that there is God, it is probable they will pause quite awhile, perhaps indefinitely.

Stinnes, German financier, in conference with Gary, American financier, would supply very interesting material for a correspondent, if the correspondent were present.

Unless able to disguise himself as an umbrella rack, or a candlestick, he probably won't be present.

The late J. M. Peebles was a very worthy old gentleman, greatly honored as about to reach a century of useful and active years. He was called by death, and many mourned him.

Now the mediums are reading letters as of his conception and sending. Probably there is no harm in believing the letters genuine if one is so constituted as to make this intellectually possible.

The theory that they are not genuine will be the one to which adherence will be marked. It is more natural to assume that, having gone into a larger realm, Dr. Peebles, if still aware of this little world, also must be aware that it has its own destiny to work out, and that his time to help was while he was here.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

One of the first jobs I ever had was as assistant to a middle aged bookkeeper, whose activities made those of an electron look like absolute repose. He hustled all the time. When we walked down street I dog-trotted, with such demonic fury did his legs quiver. He always ran up stairs. Never had time to wait for the elevator.

"I have never seen so energetic a man," I said, after I knew him well enough to talk to him. This in a tone that suggested that I admired him beyond words. It was an utterly false suggestion. I thought he was a nut.

"One must hustle if he is to get ahead," said the virtuous bookkeeper.

He is still hustling. I met him the other day, still in high speed. He can go through a mass of books like lightning through an egg. But I cannot see that he has got ahead. He is a salaried man, owns his own home, and has the finest set of dyspepsia I have ever listened to. When he has hurried into his grave his wife will take in roomers in order to live.

That sort of hustling does not get one anywhere. If he had made it a rule to sit down for two hours each week, smoke a meditative pipe, and try to discover where he was going and why, he might not be on salary today. He might own the business. He certainly knows more about it than the man who does. When any information is wanted by any one in the plant, they look up the head bookkeeper. But he has been so busy hustling that he has never made use of his own assets.

I'll not go so far as to say that laziness is commendable, because most lazy men do not think, either. When they sit down with a pipe they just sit down. They do not meditate. But a frenetic agitation of the muscular system is not the surest way to success. Unless one plans to be a juggler.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—?

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

"WE OUGHT TO GO IN"

[Springfield Republican]

As to the merits of the international court, there ought to be but one opinion. It would be a high international crime for the United States to delay much longer giving its official support to it—and the delay up to the present moment has been a national disgrace. The senate ought to act promptly as the President desires. The international court of justice has never been a party issue—not even in 1920. It was endorsed last September by the republican state convention of Massachusetts. Our government's paralysis in taking a right course in this matter has been the wonder of the world.

OF GLENDALE

CAPITAL STOCK $75,000.00

OPENING Announcement

Tuesday, April 3rd, 8:30 a.m.

233 South Brand Boulevard

The purpose of our Organization is to assist the 10,000 wage earners, salaried people and others of Glendale and vicinity to properly finance themselves.

UNTIL A FEW YEARS AGO PERSONS IN THE UNITED STATES WITHOUT PROPERTY or gilt edge collateral, regardless of how good their character or how great their earning ability, had no credit in a business sense. If credit was extended to them it was given as a personal favor. They could cast their ballot and contribute their portion of tax levies, but they could not borrow a dollar without paying the Loan Shark's ruinous rate of interest or applying to some charitable loan agency.

THE PEOPLE'S FINANCE AND THRIFT COMPANY OF GLENDALE was created to meet the demands of these people. The company is officered and managed by some of Glendale's best business men and financiers. They will confine their efforts to the financing of the wage earners, salaried people and others of Glendale in sums of from $25 upwards, at 6 per cent plus a nominal fee for investigations and clerical service. Re-payments may be made in small weekly, semi-monthly or monthly payments to suit the borrower.

LOANS WILL BE MADE ON THE BASIS OF CHARACTER AND EARNING ABILITY. No assignments of wages nor pledges are demanded. No publicity or unnecessary delays.

IF YOU'RE HONEST AND NEED MONEY FOR ESSENTIAL PURPOSES, a call at our institution will solve your problem for you. You will be placed on the same financial basis that the business man enjoys through his banking connections, and can borrow the money you need at a reasonable rate of interest.

IF YOU DO NOT NEED TO BORROW, MAKE YOUR MONEY WORK FOR YOU. Our Investment Certificates are SAFE and are redeemable in CASH. They pay you 6 per cent for your idle money. They may be purchased either for cash or on the installment plan. Interest payable semi-annually. Come in and let us explain this feature to you.

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS WAS LOANED TO WAGE EARNERS in the United States by similar institutions during the year 1922, with a loss ratio of less than one-tenth of one per cent. This firmly establishes the fact THAT "CHARACTER PLUS EARNING ABILITY IS A PROPER BASIS OF CREDIT."

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO CALL AS A PATRON OR A GUEST. Further information cheerfully furnished upon application.

BABSON COMMENTS ON PACIFIC COAST

General Outlook Good;
Gives Warning to California

MOUNTAIN LAKE, Florida, March 30.—Roger W. Babson is resting here having just completed his long trip of inspection throughout the different sections of the United States. He leaves here next week for his home in Wellesley Hills, Mass. This morning he issued the following statement regarding the business prospects of the Pacific coast. He added, however, that he was unfortunately unable to visit the coast on this trip and this statement is based upon statistical data and reports from his correspondents.

"The Pacific Northwest," says Mr. Babson, "is looking forward to better business. Prospects are encouraging for lumber, fishing, shipping and agriculture. Practically all of the large sawmills of Washington and Oregon are now operating, and production is above normal. A number of mills are even operating two or three eight-hour shifts. Orders for lumber are averaging larger than production in spite of strengthening prices. Many mills have sufficient business on their books to keep them running at capacity for some months. On the whole the lumber outlook is good for some time. Of course, the building boom is largely responsible for this active demand. Later, there may be a let-up, but I look for active residential building throughout the greater part of 1923."

"Salmon canning has a fairly good outlook. Plans have been made for a substantial increase in the pack this year. The employment of more men, and the purchases from ships' chandlers, can-making plants, machinery houses, and food and clothing establishments, will continue to contribute towards better business. From an agricultural standpoint, Washington and Oregon are in a better position than most states. Crop diversification is an outstanding factor. Moreover, the crop yield each year is exceptionally heavy. Apples, hops, berries and small fruits all bring wealth to the grower. Under these conditions, the farmer of the Pacific Northwest enters the new crop year in a strong position. This year's crops cannot be fully forecast, but wheat, lent shape and the canneries appear to have contracted for a large amount of berries and small fruit."

"With lumber production at high levels, with more active canneries operations than a year ago, with considerable ready cash in the fruit, sheep and farming country, and with an increase in shipping trade, the Pacific Northwest is headed towards a gratifying increase in business. Uniform and complete prosperity cannot be expected for some time and there will be intermediate reactions. The outlook is relatively good, however, and advertising and selling campaigns in this section should produce generally. The prosperous Wenatchee Valley is most attractive, but Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, and other Washington and Oregon cities also merit attention."

"Regarding California," Mr. Babson says, "the northern part of California has been settling down with the rest of the country. Lumbering, mining, stock raising, wool growing, canning and other lines, have been quite thoroughly liquidated. San Francisco and the Bay region have been dull for over a year. For this part of the state a slow but steady improvement is in prospect. Southern California, on the other hand, did not reach the peak of the present cycle until the latter part of 1921. It will doubtless escape the critical phases of the depression; nevertheless, it may not have completed its period of readjustment."

"Many factors suggest this outlook for Southern California. I see nothing in any of these factors, however, to occasion alarm. The great diversity of crops and industries upon which California depends and the efficient marketing characteristic of the state should tend to prevent any serious depression. I emphasize the probability of further moderate liquidation, as I know from my correspondence that many look for uninterrupted expansion. For the long run, California is unquestionably sound; but during 1923, business may mark time. Southern California should be included in all sales campaigns, but as the years progress both sales and credit departments should proceed carefully."

"In explaining the reason for this," Mr. Babson continued, "if you picture the country as a placid lake and imagine that somebody drops a rock into New York, you will get a vivid idea of how an economic movement begins and develops. The ripples of depression and prosperity spread to the north, the west and the south. Take the recent depression, for example. It started in the northeast, with a decline in the stock market and a slowing down of New England factories. Then came the crash in the agricultural west and the south. Canada held up for some time after depression appeared in the States. The Pacific coast was among the last areas to be affected. Improvement is going to follow much the same course."

"The northern parts of the Pacific coast district are running true to economic form. There was a distinct decline in Washington, Oregon and Northern California. Moreover, this decline did not develop until some time after the onslaught of the depression in the Northeast. All this was entirely typical and easily forecast. In the southern section of California, however, the trend has been greatly

RADKE HAS FINE JEWELRY FOR EASTER GIFTS

A sparkling array of diamonds, watches, jewelry and silverware is now being exhibited by Ed. N. Radke, jeweler, 109B South Brand boulevard, as suggestions for suitable gifts for Easter. Among the famous lines he carries are Gorham Sterling silver, Hawke's cut glass, Rogers' and Community plate, Waltham, Hamilton, Elgin and Howard watches.

"No matter what your selection for an Easter gift in the jewelry line might be, you will be sure to find it in our store," says Mr. Radke.

modified. Reaction has taken the form of a pause in growth rather than any prolonged downward movement. In Los Angeles, for example, during the boom year of 1919, business nearly doubled. But in 1921 and 1922 it about held its own. It is possible, of course, that some weakness may develop later; but in view of the industrial progress of the locality, such a recession should not be severe.

"I hesitate when in Florida," continued the statistician, "to forecast definitely for California. First, because I am apt to be misquoted by some of the Florida enthusiasts, and secondly, because I love and believe in the Pacific coast. California may some day have a population of 25,000,000—or perhaps more. It has the possibilities of a great empire. On the other hand, it has no monopoly on sunshine and its more rapid growth is due to the fact that Florida has been asleep. However, I say this as a friend of California, because I want California to realize that during the next ten years it will have more competition than it had during the past ten years. Trees do not grow to the skies and this applies to orange trees as well as to every other species. Little does California realize the tremendous orange plantings in Florida during the past few years. These will come into bearing almost at one time—about 1927. Beginning then, there is bound to be a tremendous struggle for eastern markets between these two states. I want my friends in California to be prepared for the flood when it comes."

"California has thus far been sort of immune from the great business depression," added Mr. Babson in conclusion. "This is due to the great influx each year of new people with money. People who made money in other states have been carrying it to California. When business in California would have fallen off, this natural decline was offset by new people and new money coming from other states. Can this always continue? I simply ask the question and urge my good California friends to think about it. In the meantime, let me say that business, taking the country as a whole, is making an exceptionally good showing. The Babsonchart stands today at 5% below normal a year ago today."

"OLD DUTCH," LIFE CONVICT, AN ARTIST

(By Associated Press)
McALLISTER, Okla., March 30. (United Press).—Monotony of gray prison walls failed to smother the genius of a life prisoner at the Oklahoma state penitentiary here.

"Old Dutch," as the prisoner is known, convicted 25 years ago for murdering his wife, disclosed talent for painting and used his skill to beautify the prison dining room and lobbies.

Through kindness to the prisoner, Warden M. C. Townsend has withheld the artist's real name. He is "Old Dutch," the prison artist, to everyone there.

For many years after he was received at the penitentiary his talent remained buried beneath his rough exterior until one day he was detailed to paint some scenery for the stage. The scenery painted by "Old Dutch" was so artistic that he was allowed to paint a portrait of each Oklahoma governor.

"Old Dutch's" latest canvas, a painting of Governor Jack Walton, has just been completed, but it will not be allowed to hang in the "Hall of Governors." The painter said work did not do justice to Oklahoma's executive and announced another portrait would be painted. Art critics who have been charged to visit the prison have invariably complimented the painter on his interpretation of the "Crucifixion" and "Resurrection," each 9 by 12 feet.

"Old Dutch" came to the United States soon after he was dismissed from the year of compulsory service in the German army, he said. He married the woman for whose murder he was convicted at Clinton, N. Y. They later moved to Oklahoma. His wife was found dead in their home which had been set afire. "Old Dutch" claims that another committed the crime.

A young lady from Baltimore, having seen most of the sights of New York and having heard much of the famous amateur nights at a certain burlesque house, persuaded a friend to escort her to one of these entertainments. The informal, Bohemian atmosphere and the fog of blue smoke that rose from cigars and cigarettes on all sides inspired her to light a cigarette. During the intermission the manager sought her, and indignantly reproached her for breaking the rules of the house. "You'll have to cut that out!" he exploded. "We don't have it here!"

"But how absurd," said the lady from Baltimore. "I smoked at the opera last night."

The burlesque manager's face was hurt and his tone grievous. "Lady," he expostulated, "this is a respectable house."

The portrait painter was in despair. "Madam," he said, "I find it impossible to procure colors that will do justice to your exquisite complexion."

"Well, then," said the sinner unperturbed, "I'll draw the outline to-day, and when I come next time I'll bring some of my colors for you."

SALT'S FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

When Back Hurts Flush
Your Kidneys as You
Clean Your Bowels

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged, and need a flushing occasionally. If we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys, and help stimulate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—ADV.

Birthday Dinners Among Surprises Greeting Passengers on Big Liners.

Chief Steward Holland of President Harding.

New York. When Miss Agnes Mahoney, a passenger aboard the President Harding of the United States Lines, bound for Bremen from New York on a recent voyage, went to the dining salon for breakfast one morning, a few days out, she was surprised to find her table a bower of flowers. As she sat down, she found at her place a double printed card, bound with ribbon, which bore her name and address. Opening it, she read:

"Many Happy Returns of the Day to You, Miss Agnes Mahoney, and Through the Years of Life We Wish to You Health—Happiness—Prosperity."

A moment later Chief Steward Leonard Holland approached the table, and said that in honor of her birthday, he was arranging for a special dinner party that evening, and asked what menu she desired, and what particular fellow passengers she wished for guests.

Miss Mahoney, completely "taken off her feet" for the moment by the surprise, admitted that it was her birthday, and that she would be delighted to be hostess at a dinner party. She declared, however, that she had not told a person on board the President Harding that it was an anniversary, had even forgotten about it herself.

"The dinner will cost nothing," said the Chief Steward. "This is a courtesy extended by the United States Lines to those passengers who, while aboard their vessels, celebrate a birthday, wedding or other popularly recognized anniversary."

"If the surprise pleases you, the efforts of the line to aid you in celebrating your anniversary are satisfactory, the line and this vessel and its officers are honored," he declared. "As for the manner in which I learned that it was your birthday, that is a little secret, but we are not divulging, but a very simple matter at that, as you may some day find out."

Miss Mahoney had her dinner party and a dance following it, which not only delighted her, but her guests and the entire list of first cabin passengers. She did not learn, though, how the Chief Steward found out about her birthday, but she may now, if this story comes to her attention.

The Chief Steward of all United States liners have under their direction the entertainment, as far as the dining salons are concerned, of passengers. It is their duty, as far as possible, to make the voyage, without request, dinners of the kind mentioned, as well as those for which a special request is made. These dinners, luncheons and even late after-dinner suppers, are prepared and served without any cost to the passenger, and the Chief Stewards find out in whose honor to arrange birthday dinners.

WE WOMEN

By BETTY BRAINER

PAT AND MIKE AND SENSE OF HUMOR

I couldn't help hearing what was said:

It was in a crowded trolley car and two men standing near me were discussing a certain lady in particular and women in general.

"The trouble with women," said one of the men, "is that they haven't a sense of humor."

"You're absolutely right," said the other.

Then they both laughed. Apparently there was something humorous about the statement. As I look at it, the statement was unquestionably humorous. Put, of course, the men didn't mean it to be funny. Men often say things in all seriousness which are very funny to us.

A little further on during the trolley ride one of the men turned to the other and started to tell a story.

"It seems," he said, "there was an Irishman named Pat and another one named Mike. They both got into a Ford and—"

But that was all I heard. The rear of the wheels of the trolley drowned out the voice of the storyteller, but the other man heard.

HATTIE GREEN'S SON HAS NEW LEASE ON LIFE (By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Colonel Edward H. Green, son of the late Hattie Green, cruising in Florida waters since he underwent the Steinhart "rejuvenation" operation last month, has written friends here that he is feeling better than he had in fifteen years. It was learned today.

First news of the operation, which was described as being successful, as published in the New York Times, declares that Colonel Green spent a week in recuperation.

Accompanied by Mrs. Green he then went to Florida where he rented the houseboat Pioneer after President Harding's party had finished with it.

The Times today also announced what it describes as the "true story" of the operation performed on Harold F. McCormick of Chicago, husband of Gamma Waleka, declaring that it had been erroneously reported that he had submitted to a gland transplantation procedure. It is said he too was given the Steinhart "rejuvenation" treatment under advice of Dr. Adolf Lorenz, Vienna bloodless surgeon, who himself had undergone treatment and claimed to have been "rejuvenated" as a result.

SECTION 1. That the public interest and convenience require and it is the intention of the Council of the City of Glendale to order the following work and improvement to be done, to-wit:

First: That all of the roadway of Piedmont Avenue, including all intersections and all intersections of streets and alleys, also that portion of Lexington Drive adjoining Piedmont Avenue, and all intersections thereof, which are already graded to the official grade heretofore established therefor, the same to be done in accordance with Plan No. 623, Profiles Nos. 149 and 340, and Specifications for said work adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale and known as Specifications No. 36.

Second: That all of the roadway of Piedmont Avenue between curbs, including all intersections and terminations of streets and alleys, also that portion of Lexington Drive adjoining Piedmont Avenue, and all intersections thereof, which are already graded to the official grade heretofore established therefor, the same to be done in accordance with Plan No. 623, Profiles Nos. 149 and 340, and Specifications for said work adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale and known as Specifications No. 36.

SECTION 2. That said contemplated work or improvement in the opinion of said Council is of more than local or ordinary public benefit and will affect and benefit the lands and district hereinafter described, and said Council hereby declares that the district in said City of Glendale herein benefited by said work or improvement and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, shall extend over said City included within the following exterior boundary lines, to-wit:

Beginning at the southeasterly corner of Lexington Drive and Adams Street, thence north along the easterly line of Adams Street to its intersection with the center line of the first alley east of Lexington Drive; thence easterly along said center line and its easterly extension to the easterly line of the first alley east of Lexington Drive; thence southerly along said easterly line to its intersection with the northerly line of Lexington Drive; thence southerly to the point of beginning, excepting therefrom any portion of any public street or alley which may be included in the above described district.

Reference is hereby made to Plan No. 623-A, approved by the Council of the City of Glendale, and on file in the office of the City Engineer, which indicates by red boundary line the extent of the territory to be included in said assessment district, and which shall govern for all details as to the extent of said assessment district.

SECTION 3. That pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of the State of California approved February 27, 1913, and the Acts amendatory thereto, Serial Bonds bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum shall be issued to represent assessments of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars or over for the costs of said work or improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending nine (9) years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon on the second day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid; and the interest shall be payable semi-annually by coupon on the second day of January and July, respectively, of each year at the rate of 7 per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest is paid.

CITY PRINTING

SECTION 4. The City Engineer is directed to make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement as described herein and to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, and the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, and within the limits of the assessment district.

SECTION 5. All Maps, Cross-sections, Plans and Profiles referred to herein are on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City. All Specifications referred to herein are on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City. Said Maps, Plans, Cross-sections, Profiles and Specifications are hereby referred to for a more particular description of said work and made a part hereof.

SECTION 6. The Glendale Daily Press, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in said City of Glendale, is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published, and by which the persons required by law, and in which the Street Superintendent shall publish notice of the passage of this Resolution of Intention.

SECTION 7. The Street Superintendent of said City of Glendale is directed to post notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention in the manner and in the form required by law, and to cause a similar notice to be published in two insertions in the Glendale Daily Press, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in said City of Glendale, and the official newspaper of said City.

SECTION 8. The City Clerk of said City of Glendale is hereby directed to post this Resolution of Intention conspicuously for two days on or near the chamber door of the said Council, and to cause the same to be published by two insertions in the manner required by law, and to cause a similar notice to be published in two insertions in the Glendale Daily Press, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in said City of Glendale, and the official newspaper of said City.

Adopted and approved this 22nd day of March, 1923.

SMOOT HAS NEW TAXATION PLAN

[By Associated Press]

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 30.—United States Senator Reed Smoot of Utah is working on a new plan of taxation, imposition of taxation, taxes on expenditures, which he hopes to have ready to submit to the next regular session of congress.

The senator made this announcement upon his arrival here to spend the summer.

"I do not expect any call for a special session of congress this year," he said. "My plans call for a good rest. If there is any hitch in the agreement with Great Britain over the debt funding scheme I may have to return to Washington, but I hope there will not be."

"At the beginning of the session agriculture was in a despondent state. There were millions of unemployed and idle cars were noted everywhere on the railroads. While agriculture has not fully recovered, it is on the high road to normal conditions. There are no unemployed except the lazy."

"The chief trouble the railroads are having is to get cars enough to handle the traffic. Building is on the boom. Deposits in savings banks have increased and interest rates have declined. Our foreign trade is increasing with leaps and bounds, contrary to all predictions of the calamity howlers. Taxes for federal purposes have been reduced. Military armament has been limited and our chief foreign credit with England has been funded."

"Peace is assured on the Pacific and emigration has been restrained within reasonable limits and the American business world has confidence in the future."

"The present administration has reduced the public debt from August 31, 1919, when it was at its peak, to January 31, 1923, a little more than $3,000,000,000."

"The steel mills are sold way ahead and there is a shortage of labor in all of the industries of the east."

"The hue and cry against the tariff bill has fallen to the ground. Instead of our foreign trade decreasing, it has vastly increased. Instead of our importations decreasing there have experienced an unknown and unheard of increase. So great has this increase in importations been that there will be collected for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, more than $450,000,000 in duties. This amount is $50,000,000 more than I had estimated and is a larger amount than any one had anticipated. The class of goods imported has been general and from all parts of the world."

"The world outside of America is financially sick. And, at the bottom of it all, rests the burden of taxation. I might add that taxation is the question that is playing havoc with the world today. Stability in commerce and in government cannot become normal under the staggering load of taxation. It is breeding unrest the world over."

Foley's Friendly Fancies

JAMES W. FOLEY

ONCE IN A WHILE

Once in a while there's a perfect hour,

Once in a while there's a dream come true;

Once in a while there's a wayside flower

Spilling its fragrance for me and you.

Once in a while there's a blue, blue sky,

Fairer than ever was sky we've known,

And the clouds that darken have all blown by,

Leaving us sunshine and joy alone.

And often there comes the dripping cloud,

The sodden turf and the skies all gray;

The dreary wind like a sob aloud,

And sorrow through all of the misty day.

And often there comes the trial sore,

The bitter sorrow and stabbing pain,

Till it seems that joy will return no more,

Nor ever the heart be glad again.

But once in a while all the soul's in tune,
The sorrows flown and the glad heart sings,
The day is perfect like one in June,
And all forgotten the bitter things.
So what if the sorrow shall come again,
And what if the heart shall no longer smile,
It is worth all the struggle and grief and pain
If we gain that perfect Once-in-a-While.

CHESTERTON PREPARES TO COMBAT MONOPOLY

[By Associated Press]

LONDON, March 30.—Gilbert K. Chesterton, the author, is going to start a new weekly magazine to combat monopoly and support his stand for scattered property with as many small owners as possible.

"There is no organ today that presents this view," Mr. Chesterton explains, "and there should be one."

"I think that the modern evil is monopoly," Mr. Chesterton continues. "My objection to socialism is that it is really only the culmination of capitalism, and my objection to capitalism is that it is likely to turn into socialism, because what they have in common is that they both make wealth impersonal and centralized."

"And what will you do with the striped kimono your son says he is sending home?" asked the town lady of the farmer's wife. "You may well ask, missus," replied the rustic. "I suppose I'll have to put it in one of the pigsties, but what I'm to feed it, goodness only knows."
